

FRIENDS OF HUDSON RIVER PARK VISIONARY COMMITTEE

Hugging the Westside shoreline for a four mile stretch from Chambers Street to 59th, Hudson River Park is a nearly 550-acre recreational oasis within the city's most urban landscape, a premier 21st-century waterfront park attracting millions every year to its renovated piers and parklands.

The Friends of Hudson River Park Visionary Committee enlists invested volunteers, spirited fundraisers and strong ambassadors from diverse backgrounds to advocate and raise key funds that help preserve, enhance and complete Hudson River Park to ensure its vibrant future for decades to come.

Friends of Hudson River Park launched its Visionary Committee in fall 2015 to encourage rising professionals and our next generation of influential leaders to become actively involved in the growth and enrichment of Hudson River Park, New York's Park for Play.

Connect with other socially-conscious individuals who are engaged and passionate about supporting the Park and all its recreational, environmental and educational resources.

BENEFITS

Networking: Meet and mingle with your peers at hosted events, happy hour receptions and exclusive fundraising celebrations, such as our annual Hudson River Park Games and the Friends Gala after party

Access: Committee Members are invited to a variety of both professional networking and informal group outings throughout the year, providing behind-the-scenes experiences and opportunities to learn more about the important work and ongoing development of the Park with Friends board members and leadership staff

Entrepreneurial Opportunity: Develop creative methods to inspire future generations of leaders to support the Park, and work to raise meaningful contribution funds

Recognition: Members are listed on our website, promotional Committee materials and acknowledged at Friends fundraising events

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

Visionary Committee Members are asked to share their time, talent and resources to support Friends of Hudson River Park in the following ways:

Financial: Committee Members fulfill an annual contribution of $2,500—either by gift or through direct fundraising to individual, corporate, foundation or personal networks—with a minimum two-year commitment

Participation and Attendance: It is requested that members attend either one Committee-led fundraising or networking event annually

Advocacy and Service: Become involved as strong ambassadors for the Friends mission in such activities as supporting specific community relations projects and advocating to elected officials

Hudson River Park, the longest waterfront park in the United States, has transformed four miles of decaying piers and parking lots along Manhattan's West side into a beloved, urban recreational paradise. Attracting 17 million visits each year, the Park offers a myriad of recreational and educational activities for local residents and visitors alike, and plays a critical role in protecting the Hudson River environment itself.

Friends of Hudson River Park is an independent nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to the completion, care, enhancement and ongoing sustainability of Hudson River Park. Serving as the Park's primary fundraising partner, Friends generates necessary private support to guarantee this vital destination continues to flourish and grow for generations of New Yorkers and visitors from around the world.
