

Native Aquarium System

1. What is one benefit of a flow-through aquarium system?
  - A. Aquarium water is crystal clear in flow-through systems
  - B. Water temperature in the tanks will always stay the same in a flow-through aquarium
  - C. The flow-through system takes care of feeding all of the animals
  - D. Animals can be easily released from flow-through aquariums
2. Why is the aquarium water green?
  - A. Pollution
  - B. Saltiness
  - C. Fungous
  - D. Plankton

Native Aquarium System

1. What is one benefit of a flow-through aquarium system?
  - A. Aquarium water is crystal clear in flow-through systems
  - B. Water temperature in the tanks will always stay the same in a flow-through aquarium
  - C. The flow-through system takes care of feeding all of the animals
  - D. Animals can be easily released from flow-through aquariums
2. Why is the aquarium water green?
  - A. Pollution
  - B. Saltiness
  - C. Fungous
  - D. Plankton

Native Aquarium System

1. What is one benefit of a flow-through aquarium system?
  - A. Aquarium water is crystal clear in flow-through systems
  - B. Water temperature in the tanks will always stay the same in a flow-through aquarium
  - C. The flow-through system takes care of feeding all of the animals
  - D. Animals can be easily released from flow-through aquariums
2. Why is the aquarium water green?
  - A. Pollution
  - B. Saltiness
  - C. Fungous
  - D. Plankton

Native Aquarium System

1. What is one benefit of a flow-through aquarium system?
  - A. Aquarium water is crystal clear in flow-through systems
  - B. Water temperature in the tanks will always stay the same in a flow-through aquarium
  - C. The flow-through system takes care of feeding all of the animals
  - D. Animals can be easily released from flow-through aquariums
2. Why is the aquarium water green?
  - A. Pollution
  - B. Saltiness
  - C. Fungous
  - D. Plankton

